2011-01-02	PCSO Report: In the absence of PCSO Groves there was no report at this time. Cllr.E.Jones had spoken with Sgt. Jones of Camelford Police Station who was disappointed to report a major disturbance which had occurred outside The White Hart public house in St Teath when two ornamental swords had been stolen and serious damage caused to the Christmas tree, Christmas lights and a bus shelter in St Teath. The culprits had been apprehended and had apologised for their conduct. It was the feeling of this Council that an apology was not sufficient as several hundreds of pounds worth of damage had been done to the Christmas lights which would have to be replaced before next Christmas.

	'full house'. The 'Cornwall Council' street bollards, discarded by Mi Space, should be retrieved and stored in a place of safety. Cllr. J. Tidd reported the theft of several granite 'mushrooms' and warned members to be extra vigilant for any granite garden furniture they may have, these items were being stolen to order and sold on for very good prices.	Cllr Stacey.
